Around the Square

By VERA H. LUMBARD

Lots of interested people have their fingers crossed for the survival of the two treasured Irish yew trees in City Park which have been moved farther apart to provide an unobstructed vista for the summer band concerts.

Seems this is not a thing that is undertaken casually and bids for the major operation, providing for boxing the roots and all, ran as high as $585. Valued as the more than 40-year-old trees are, the city couldn't see spending anything like that kind of money so had the job done quite simply by Fred Richter for $75.

C. Jacques Hahn, landscape architect, says a pair of matched yew trees might be valued in the neighborhood of $3000. They are evergreen, very slow growing and sometimes live to be centuries old.

The handsome columnar ones in City park, now between 12 and 14 feet high, were the gift of Miss Thomassella Graham who came to Sierra Madre in 1909 for a brief visit as she was enroute from Pinewood, Tenn., to Santa Barbara. Sierra Madre reminded her so poignantly of the Italy she had loved in her extensive travels that she lingered here. She built the beautiful mansion on North Lima which she named Italia Mia. The gardens and grounds she developed were also studied with yew trees and won national first prizes in garden club competitions.

Miss Graham, now in her 80's, STILL resides in the little town she had intended to visit so briefly. She lives at 349 N. Lima and Italia Mia's grounds now embrace smaller homes.

It was Miss Graham who gave the Italian cypress trees bordering part of Lima street and the pepper tree on Kersting Court in front of Byron Hopper's jewelry store.

REPUBLICANS TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE IN NEW QUARTERS

The new Sierra Madre Republican and Knight for Governor headquarters, 83 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., opened officially today and open house will be held there from 1 to 4 Saturday afternoon, April 3. The public is invited to visit the campaign headquarters that day as well as on other days, according to Judge John C. Mead who was one of the committee of three which obtained the location. Others assisting were Thomas M. Schwartz and Mrs. Noren Eaton.

The entrance to the new offices is just east of the Fashion Future Shop. The hours will be from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., Mondays through Fridays and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Saturdays. The headquarters will be staffed by members of the Sierra Madre Republican Club and the Young Republican Club.

Applications for Posts On Board of Education Available at City School

Application blanks for filling candidacies for the one three-year term open on the Sierra Madre school board, may be obtained at the City school.

The deadline for filing the applications is April 21 prior to the annual school board election May 21. Dr. Milton Valois, president of the board, is the only announced candidate to date.

Mrs. E. G. Everett Home from Hospital

Capt. E. G. Everett, former Sierra Madrean now living in Long Beach, who makes a weekly visit here, reports that Mrs. Everett is back at her home, 1626 Cedar Ave., from Seaside hospital in Long Beach.

She has been a patient there since suffering a broken hip three weeks ago in a fall in a hotel coffee shop in Calexico.

Civic Loyalty Theme of New Campaign

A "Buy-it-in Sierra Madre" campaign, begun earlier this week under sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce, is receiving the support of practically all business houses that have been contacted, according to Don Jackson, president of the civic organization.

Charles W. Gordon of Pasadena, a former merchant who has spent the last several years improving merchant-customer relationship in small cities, says the 12-week program he is discussing with each merchant is being greeted with enthusiasm.

Plan Poster Series
The campaign, largely of an educational nature, includes the simultaneous display of a series of 12 posters with supplementary stories in the NEWS featuring reasons why you should buy at home. The series will be entitled, "We Have It In Sierra Madre."

Mr. Gordon, who has wide experience in Chamber of Commerce work, says every citizen of Sierra Madre should remind himself of the following facts: "My town is the place where my home is founded and where my vote is cast; where my children are educated; where my neighbors dwell and where my life is chiefly lived. It is the home spot for me."

Loyalty Deserved
"My home town has the right to my civic loyalty. It supports me and I should support it. My town wants my citizenship, not my partisanship; my friendliness, not my dissension; my sympathy, not my criticism; my intelligence, not my indifference."

"My town supplies me with protection, trade, friends, education, schools, churches and the right to free moral American citizenship."

"It has some things that are better than others. The best things I should seek to make better, the worst things I should help to reduce."

Mrs. Culbertson Fires Her Highest Score in State, Regional Contest

Mrs. Margaret Culbertson, 37 W. Grand View, Women's National Pistol champion, fired the highest score she has ever fired in a state or regional match, when she participated along with 155 men and one other woman, in the California State Championship matches in San Diego last weekend. There was no women's competition.

Her score was 2506 out of 2700. Sierra Madre's "pistol packing" former school teacher, says her highest score was 2525 out of 2700, fired in the November (1952) San Diego Turkey Shoot, which does not classify, however, as a state or regional competition.

WATER BONDS . . .

Sierra Madre's water distribution system includes 34.7 miles of mains, of various sizes and ages—many approaching 35 years—some older. The James Montgomery Water Report indicates 21930 feet or slightly over 4 miles of the City pipe lines have now reached the safe maximum life of 35 years for the type of water pipe originally laid.

This represents approximately 11 per cent of the City's mains by footage, which must, in many cases, be replaced by larger pipe in order to meet fire protection standards, and satisfy service requirements of higher population density.

The City Administration is undertaking this program out of water revenue, together with other required extensions and replacements, estimated total cost being $148,750.

Our recent disastrous forest fire pointed the need for pipeline renewal since suction of the fire pumps was such that some of the older lines were near collapse.

On the other hand, the proposed new reservoir and well, together with pump, motor and controls, go beyond the ability of current water revenue funds to finance. A previous article pointed out that our high area Auburn water zone has only 43.5 per cent of minimum storage requirement; furthermore, the Auburn reservoir, located in the mouth of Auburn Canyon,

ALFRED JAMES DEWEY . . . 80th birthday made memorable

"It may not have been a complete surprise but it was a complete success."

That's what they're saying about the party last Saturday night which celebrated the 80th birthday of Alfred James Dewey—a distinguished painter and dean of Sierra Madre's art colony, held in his studio, 28 Windsor Lane.

Despite early plans to "keep it mum," the party was no surprise to the guest of honor who heard that a specially decorated cake was coming his way and he started making up a list of those with whom he wanted to share the birthday confetti.

Share Their Secret
The "surprise" party was already afoot and to circumvent a duplication, Lee Shippey and Dan Parker told Dewey some of their plans.

But when he was escorted to his own studio that night by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin C. Lewis, he didn't expect the some 30 well-wishers crowded into the cozy studio, the turkey dinner, the cake lavishly decorated with a "landscape" done in tinted icing, or the gift paint-box filled with 80 crisp greenbacks.

Among those attending and paying tribute to the noted artist were Harlan Ware, author; R. C. Lewis, Harold F. Roberts, Herbert Ingraham, Robert O. Foote, Elmer Weese, Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan, Fire Chief James Heasley, Lee Shippey, columnist, who served as master of ceremonies, the guest of honor's wife, Sally; his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Underwood, and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Dewey of Santa Paula, and other guests.

Daughter in East
Another daughter, Mrs. Frances Zoline of New York City, could not attend.

The novel birthday cake was decorated for Mr. Dewey by a friend, John Anthony of Monrovia.

The artist, once ranked among top illustrators, came to Sierra Madre in 1926 and since then has seldom stopped painting California's mountains and deserts.

He was founder of the Arts Guild here and has designed 20 Rose Parade floats for Sierra Madre, 17 of them being division prize winners.

Garden Club Has Display at Pasadena Flower Show Event

The Garden club of Sierra Madre will have a 500-square-foot, pool-centered display of succulents in the Pasadena Spring Flower and Garden Show, "A Floral Fair," which will open to the public Saturday, April 3, and continue through April 11.

The coming flower show event, during which April 10 has been designated as "Sierra Madre Day," will be held in the Fannie E. Morrison Horticultural Center, Brookside park, Pasadena. It is Southern California's oldest flower show event and the fifth largest in the nation.

Allen S. Hicks of the Sierra Show, "A Floral Fair," which ranks among the larger such clubs in the state, is chairman for the exhibit. Following a design supplied by C. Jacques Hahn, local landscape architect,

Mr. Hicks, Mrs. Hicks and Col. and Mrs. Owen R. Marriott have done such preliminary work on the display as moving and rearranging rocks and moving soil, even to digging out the pool which had been filled in.

Begging, Borrowing Plants
In addition to the ground-work, Mr. Hicks also has been heading the search for and acquiring as many varieties as possible of succulents, such as Phormium, Cacti, Yucca and Century plants. Some have come from gardens of friends and Garden club members such as W. F. Schregardus, a past president of the local Garden club, who has an extensive collection of succulents. Mr. Hahn is lending Jade trees for the exhibit.

By today the display will be as nearly perfected as it ever will be for the judging is tomorrow morning and the local sponsors have hopes that the Sierra Madre exhibit will be in the running for the $100 prize in its class.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a tea, preview and fashion show and Mr. and Mrs. Hicks have invited a party of out-of-town friends to share a table with them. It is expected that other Sierra Madreans will attend. Admission required is three $1 tickets.

Sells 150 Tickets
Garden club members will have sold virtually all of their six books of tickets, about 150, by today, according to Mrs. Colin C. Timmons. For their efforts the club will receive a rebate of $3 on each book.

On opening day at the flower show Mr. and Mrs. Timmons and Mr. and Mrs. Hicks will be among the official hosts. Mrs. C. E. Morrison and another local member will be hostesses Monday afternoon, April 5, and Mrs. Carl Gerke and Mrs. F. D. R. Moore will serve in the same capacity Wednesday night.

The flower show hours are from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily April 3 through the 11th.

RETURNS TO WORK

Mrs. Florence Peterson, executive secretary of the local Red Cross, returned to work this week following a two-week leave of absence.

Mrs. Paul Burton filled in for Mrs. Peterson during her vacation.

Youth Nabbed In Cemetery Fracas Here

In a tense, dark-of-night strategy in a graveyard setting, Sierra Madre and Arcadia Police Tuesday night took into custody a youth armed with a shotgun who reportedly threatened suicide and succeeded in firing one shell at encircling officers before he was captured and disarmed.

He is Richard Frederick Rush, age 23, son of Mrs. Viola May Rush, 161 1/2 E. Alegria, this city. Sierra Madre police officers John McDonough and Robert Heasley, together with a police unit from Arcadia, rushed to Sierra Madre cemetery in response to a call at 10:55 p.m. from Rush's wife, Evelyn.

Officer White of Arcadia, in whose direction Rush had fired, succeeded in apprehending the would-be-suicide.

Rush, uninjured but with powder burns on his shirt, was taken to Los Angeles County hospital for protective custody. He was to be released yesterday to Sierra Madre police for questioning and possible filing of a complaint against him for assault with a deadly weapon.

L. A. Honors Van Iersel Tomorrow

Louis Van Iersel of Sierra Madre, recently retired as a draftsman in the Los Angeles City Engineer's office, will be the guest of honor tomorrow at a testimonial luncheon in the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles.

A Congressional Medal of Honor winner, Van Iersel is one of the nation's most decorated heroes.

Invited as special guests are members of Van Iersel's family who will attend. They are Mrs. Van Iersel, their sons, John of Sierra Madre and Louis of El Monte, and their wives, and a friend and fellow City employee, Walter Couchman of Sierra Madre.

Red Cross Fund Drive Still Short of Goal

The sum of $5121 had been received this week by Thomas M. Schwartz, Red Cross Fund Drive chairman, in the annual appeal which opened March 1.

The quota for Sierra Madre this year is $6308. "Sierra Madre has always made its quota and this year will be no exception," Schwartz said. The solicitation will remain open until the needed $1187 is received, he announced.

Contributions may be sent to local Red Cross chapter headquarters, 41 S. Baldwin, or to the care of David H. Allen, Bank of Sierra Madre.

Cancer Control Month Set By Mayor Louk

"Cancer will strike one in every five Americans if present rates continue."

"This effectively makes Sierra Madre's stake in the 1954 American Cancer Society crusade about 1640 lives. If our recent fire or floods had taken 1640 lives it would have been termed a catastrophe. We cannot feel that the 1640 lives that our community could, statistically, lose to cancer is less of an emergency. A third of these could be saved through our dollars which go into public education. The other two-thirds may some day be saved through our dollars which go into research. And in the meantime, our contributions also go to aid comfort to those already stricken."

This statement was made today by Mrs. James Hervey Dean, ACS Unit chairman for Sierra Madre, in announcing a proclamation by Mayor Louk designating April as "Cancer Control Month" issued by the Council of Sierra Madre, endorsing the Society's combined cancer education and fund-raising campaign which begins today.

Contribution should be mailed to American Cancer Society, Pasadena-Foothill Area, 180 S. Euclid St., Pasadena, Cal.

Issues Pinpointed In Candidate Quizz

The bright lights came on this week in the local political arena when 11 candidates for City Council posts, including two incumbents, stated their platforms in five-minute talks in public meeting, then answered a barrage of questions, some of them barbed.

Indicating issues uppermost in the minds of citizens who will vote in the April 13 municipal election, discussion centered on proposed water system expansion and improvements, long-range flood control plans, increasing City revenue, recreational facilities for youth, need for a master zoning plan, pensioning of municipal employees and even the recently-defeated municipal swimming pool project.

PRE-ELECTION ISSUE

In the April 8th pre-election issue of THE NEWS pertinent questions asked of the candidates and their replies will be listed. Also presented then will be pictures of the candidates, their own views and proposals on paramount issues, a directory of the candidates' occupations and activities, and information regarding the two propositions on the ballot which will affect the City tax rate.

Approximately 150 interested citizens attended the public meeting Monday night in City school auditorium which was sponsored as a civic service by the non-partisan Community Coordinating council.

Knox Hagar of Monrovia, a past president of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club, presided. Timekeepers were the Rev. Raynor Smith and Supt. of Schools Charles A. Skutt.

The written questions from the audience focused attention on an incumbent councilman-candidate, Harold F. Roberts, and Lorne Pratt, native Sierra Madrean and public relations director, who, between them, were called upon to answer a score of queries. Questions also were directed to Candidates

Charles R. Gildart, Walter H. Goodwin, Sidney B. Haupt, Leroy H. Quackenbush and Councilman Charles E. Louk.

Other candidates present included Argyle Luckenbill, Neil K. Yarnell, W. W. Maloney and James M. Stewart.

Survey Stirs Interest

Pratt created interest with a 13-page survey of City departments and analysis by him, copies of which were distributed. In his talk he charged that city administrator in Sierra Madre had proved a failure and that City revenue could and should be increased, among other points.

He also directed criticism to the present City Council for filling a council vacancy March 9 when a newly-elected council was in the immediate offing. He also charged that, in the same vein, the present council apparently intended to hire a new city administrator to succeed R. Merritt Baker who has resigned as of May 1. He based this charge on an advertisement appearing under "Help Wanted" in the official publication of the California League of Cities giving an April 10 closing date for applications for a Sierra Madre administrator.

Councilmen Roberts and Louk stated that they knew nothing of the advertisement.

Offers Clarification

Charles H. James, councilman and chairman of the Finance committee, clarified this point Tuesday when he told THE NEWS the advertisement had been placed by the personnel clearing bureau of the League of California Cities when he, acting for the council, contacted the League for available administrators.

"This council had no intention of hiring the new administrator," he stated. "The April 10 date was set arbitrarily to expedite submission of applications for the new council with the possibility that a new administrator, if hired, could be oriented the latter part of April by Mr. Baker before he leaves May 1."

Grade Schoolers Write Songs and Scripts for Spring Program April 8

"Story Book Parade," annual spring program of the Sierra Madre Elementary school, with original songs and some original script by the participating fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils, will be presented Thursday night, April 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Matilda Smith is the director. The program has been set earlier this year, due to spring vacation the week of April 12 and the school band concert scheduled for May.

MISS STEINBERGER

City Planners Name Officers, Hold Hearings

The Planning commission last week named Miss Elizabeth Steinberger chairman succeeding William E. Bowers who had resigned. In reorganizing, the commission elected Robert Ainsworth vice-chairman and Dr. David S. Wood secretary.

Miss Steinberger, a Sierra Madre resident for 60 years, has served on the planning commission for more than four years.

First of two public hearings were held on (1) creation of an R-1 Modified zone in Sierra Madre and (2) a proposal to include nursery schools of not more than 10 children in the R-2 duplex zone. No protests were received on either proposal.

The proposed R-1-M zone would require homesteads of 85-foot frontages and no less than 11,000 square feet total area. If approved it would be applied to the Lannan estate north of Grand View near Santa Anita now zoned R-1-Large. The subdivision plans figured recently in a compromise agreement relative to site acquisition for the Lannan canyon check dam constructed by U. S. Forest Service engineers.

The commission received letters approving the nursery school zoning amendment proposal from Dr. P. R. Woodworth and Dr. M. H. A. Peterson stating that in their opinions nursery schools were needed here.

The amended zoning, if approved, would permit Mrs. Marjorie Peterson to continue operation of a small nursery school in her home, 71 Suffolk.

Friends of Library Announces Program For Public Meeting

Colorful slides of northern Arizona Navajo-land and a preview of films to come are on the agenda for the April 8 public meeting of the Friends of the Library, 8 p.m., at the Community Nursery school.

Marvin Weese, famed Sierra Madre artist and author, heads the program with his own pictorial review of the Indian country. Miss June Bayliss, librarian of San Marino, is to describe films and exhibits available to Sierra Madre on completion of the new library building and auditorium.

This will be the last open meeting before the major June meeting of the organization when elections will be held. All persons becoming members prior to that time are charter members and eligible to vote for officers and policy.

Parade of Children Planned for Easter Rose Bowl Service

A dramatic Easter procession of thousands of Sunday school children from Southern California churches will climax the sixth annual Rose Bowl Easter sunrise service, the interdenominational sponsoring committee announced. At least 3000 youngsters are expected to take part in the procession with a huge cross on the Rose Bowl turf as its background motif, according to Bruce Bare of Pasadena, chairman of the Sunday school arrangements.

Their participation at the head of the Sunday school parade will blend the Rose Bowl as a symbol of top-level competition in American sports with the Easter morning emphasis on the relevance of the Easter message to all areas of the national life, and emphasize the importance of the role of youth in building for a sturdy tomorrow in terms of Christian life and values.

'MUSIC NOTES AND ANECDOTES' TOPIC FOR CENTER EVENT

"Musical Notes and Anecdotes," a cultural evening, will be presented by the Foothill Jewish Community Center, 212 N. Lima, on Saturday, April 3, beginning at 8:15 p.m.

Chairman of the evening, Lee Streicher, has announced the following program: Joseph Budnik, baritone; Ruth Attie, soprano; Don Dorell, story-teller; Esther Butler, pianist, and Evelyn Schuck, violinist.

The Moppettes, affiliate organization of the Center, will be host for refreshments following the program. Other cultural committee members planning this event are Milton Horowitz, Rubin Friedman, Florence Glesby, Georgia Weissman and Serna Streicher. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the committee or by calling Mrs. Streicher at EL-1108-1298.

Lee Shippey asks

What Do You Think?

When we give things to our own church rummage sales or white elephant sales, or to Goodwill Industries or the Volunteers of America (of which our own F.D.R. Moore is an executive), or the Salvation Army or any such established benevolent organization, we know they are going to good causes. But some of the people who come around asking for cast-off clothing or furniture for assorted worthy causes are not above suspicion. So long as they ask only for old papers and other things we are glad to get rid of, we might cheerfully give those things. But before giving anything of value we should ask to see credentials. One fellow I asked said he was collecting things for disabled veterans, but the next time he came around he was collecting for "the Christians" and hardly seemed to know what Christians.

If Mr. Baker is looking for another job, I would like to give him this recommendation. While he was City Manager, as I observed it, we had more street improvement and better collection of garbage and rubbish than we ever had before.

You can't doubt that our town has a lot of public spirited citizens when you see that 11 of them are running for three vacant seats in the Council. Being a City Councilman is about as much fun as going through a mosquito swamp with your hands tied. Everybody who is peeved about anything has a right to stink you, and you can't do much about it. You get a lot out of being a Councilman—but most of it is trouble.

Every time I look at a ballot—any ballot—I can't help thinking that our State Legislators put over a smooth trick for their own benefit when they made it law that the names of incumbents shall always appear first on ballots. That gives all incumbents an advantage, which is why the Legislature, made up entirely of incumbents, voted for it. If there is any good reason for giving them that advantage, I don't know it.

These remarks don't apply to our city election. Our people had nothing to do with it, and in a town like ours we know or can easily find out all about the candidates. Those who have shown their public spirit and abilities in other ways are known to us. But when the statewide primary comes up, don't just put your X after the first name in a list without giving due consideration to the other names on the ballot.

In many legislative bodies, there are incumbents who really are encumbrances. If you think an incumbent can and will do the best job, fine. But don't vote for anybody just because his name heads the list.

Last word: When women didn't vote and most men smoked cigars, candidates used to hand out bushels of cigars. Nowadays one might get the feminine vote by handing out green stamps.

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS

Which candidates understand that one match could burn the rest of our watershed? That fire prevention and protection are our only safety? That disaster relief is thousands per cent expense and loss over fire prevention? That hundreds of thousands of acres of watershed and timber resources, throughout our nation, are lost each year because the United States Forest Service is unbelievably understaffed and lacking in needed equipment?

Col. Gildart is a candidate for councilman in the coming election.

Louk Attends Meet of New Commission

Top-ranking representatives of federal, state, county and city governments convened March 20 in Arcadia City Hall for the inaugural meeting of the newly organized Los Angeles County Forest Watersheds Protective and Rehabilitation Commission, dedicated to setting up a long-range program of fire and flood protection for the mountain areas and foothill communities.

Sierra Madre's member on the commission is Mayor Charles E. Louk.

Under the guidance of Supervisor Herbert C. Legg, who proposed establishment of the commission, the new group heard first-hand reports from various leaders in conservation and flood-control work of the problems, including the number one problem of appropriating additional federal funds needed to carry out the program.

Mayor Jack Schmoecker of Arcadia was elected chairman of the 30-man commission, which includes among its members representatives of all agencies of government, county, state and federal, who are concerned with the problem. Mark McMahon, La Canada banker, was named vice-chairman and Howard Miller, San Marino city councilman and assistant general manager of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, was elected secretary.

Among those speaking before the commission at the initial session were U.S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel; Supervisor Roger Jessup; William V. Mendenhall, supervisor of the Angeles National Forest; Harold E. Hedger, chief of the County Flood Control District; James K. Mace, deputy state forester; Clare Hendee, U.S. regional forester; Dr. Richard McArdle, U.S. forester, and J. Earl Coke, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

Supervisors Authorize Sale of $40,000,000 in Flood Control Bonds

Award of a contract for purchase of $40,000,000 in Los Angeles County flood control district bonds to Bank of America and associates was authorized by the County Board of Supervisors on March 23.

With bonds bearing an interest rate of 2½ percent, the sale represents the second block of bonds to be sold by the flood control district to finance the construction of the county-wide storm drain program and are part of the $179,000,000 bond issue proposed by Supervisor Herbert C. Legg and approved by county voters by a 4-to-1 majority at the November 1952 election.

RONNIE MERRITT, above, 526 N. Lima, Sierra Madre, will appear in a featured role in Theatre Americana's production of "Company Wives" opening tonight in the Davis Building of Farnsworth Park, Altadena. The show, an adult comedy about company politics, will run for four nights. Tom Purcell is director. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Registration on Saturdays for Pony League

Saturday morning commencing at 10 a.m. registration of candidates for the Rose Bowl Pony league teams will take place at the following junior high schools: La Canada, Temple City, and the Pasadena schools of Elliot, Marshall, Wilson, Washington and McKinley. All lads should try out at the school named above which is closest to his residence.

Here are the requirements: The young baseballers must live in La Canada, Temple City, Sierra Madre, Pasadena or Altadena. All lads' ages must fall in the 13-or-14-year-old bracket. A boy now 12 years of age who will be 13 before Aug. 1 is eligible. So is a lad now 14 years of age, who will not be 15 until after Aug. 1.

Two league officials will be on hand at each of the schools to register the youths. Equipment is not needed on sign-up day. The day will be devoted entirely to enrolling the players.

Several manager and coach openings still exist. Men from the communities of La Canada, Temple City and Sierra Madre are particularly invited to assist with the program. Interested persons should call Howard Collier at SYcamore 8-5502.

Equipment has already been purchased for the major and minor teams. Tryout and practice sessions will be announced Saturday.

Cub Scout News

At the March meeting of Pack 371 held recently at the First Congregational church the achievement displays of the various Cubbers were exhibited to show the type work done for the various awards.

The meeting was opened with the flag salute led by Den 4. Following the induction of two new Cubbs, Karl Abbe and Steven Anthony, the formal ceremony for the awards was held.

Those attaining the Wolf badge were Bradley Zebal, Joseph Dauben, Fred White, Philip Hansford, Eric Dowty, Craig Reece, Howard Schaefer, Donald Dammeyer and Glendon Smith. Gold arrows were awarded to Geoffrey Potter, Erich Wittig, Gene Thorne and Dennis Becher. Geoffrey Potter also received a silver arrow.

Fund raising plans were presented to the group for its consideration.

The ideas committees for the next three pack meetings were announced. The subject for April will be "Black Gold" and the committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Mac A. Cason, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Coit and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Zebal.

The May theme is "Mississippi Showboat" and the committee is Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Dammeyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dauben and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davidson.

"Air Adventures" will be presented in June by committee members, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Dowty, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Ericson and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Hansford.

S. H. Potter was elected as Assistant Cub Master.

For the program, the Cubbers in Den 1 were all attired in authentic Indian costumes and gave a brief talk on the particular tribe they portrayed. Den 2 members presented a skit about an Indian medicine man who had to finally resort to pills to cure his patients.

An Indian dance, complete with howls, whoops, rattles and all that goes with it, was given by Den 3.

Members from Den 4 told the group about the various phases of Indian life and customs and showed samples of tomahawks, bows and arrows, and a model of a Navajo Hogan.

The formation of a new den is contemplated in the near future. Anyone interested in joining should contact the Cub Master, Eric A. Wittig, at CUster 5-2736.

'FAMILIAR SAYINGS IN FLOWERS, THEME FOR ROSE PARADE

"Familiar Sayings in Flowers" has been chosen as the theme for float decorators to follow in the 66th annual Tournament of Roses Parade New Year's Day, President Elmer Wilson announced at the conclusion of a nation-wide theme contest.

Winner of the contest is Lt. Col. Merle T. Wetton, U.S. Marine Corps representative in the Los Angeles office of Armed Forces Public Information. He resides in Hollywood. His winning theme was picked from 5000 suggestions received by mail in the Tournament of Roses office. Mrs. Roger Benedict of Sierra Madre chose the Parade theme for 1954, "Famous Books in Flowers."

Col. Wetton stated that he got the idea "Familiar Sayings" with the thought that a beautiful float could be built around the famous slogan, "Tell it to the Marines."

As winner of the competition Col. and Mrs. Wetton will be Pasadena's guests New Year's Day for the Parade, Rose Bowl game and guest luncheon. He also submitted suggestions for floats such as "Lafayette, We Are Here," "Figures Never Lie,"

Maysie Skutt Reviews World Jaunt in Book Soon Published

A collection of the travel anecdotes with which Charles and Maysie Skutt have been entertaining Sierra Madre audiences since their return from a swift trip around the world last fall, will soon be available in book form.

"World Safari," in limited edition, will be off the presses of Pasadena Publications about April 25. Authoress Maysie Skutt reports as she pauses momentarily in the process of reading page proofs.

Publication day, we venture, will be almost as exciting for the ebullient Mrs. Skutt as the day they set out by freighter from Seattle on the first stage of the journey for which they had waited and saved for 15 years.

Lee Shippey Comments

Columnist Lee Shippey of Sierra Madre, himself an author, sums it all up in the following "blurb" which he has written for the book jacket:

"Who hasn't dreamed," he writes, "of a trip around the world—yet how few of us ever take one! That is because few of us are as patient and far-sighted as 'Skuttie.' He not only dreamed of it but started saving five dollars a month toward it. In 15 years, with compound interest, that should take him on a slow boat to China and all the rest of the way. 'Skuttie' married Maysie and, when one marries, other things happen which dig into the savings. It took them 15 years to save money for two to take the trip around the world. But, by heck, they did it though not all by slow boat.

Not Shocked at 'Folies'

"Being friendly persons, they got chummy with sailors, train men, pilots and others who made their journey more illuminating than are the tours of most tourists. They learned much about Japan, the Philippines, Siam, India, Pakistan and the Near East, as well as such standbys as Athens and Paris."

"Of course they had some disappointments. The Folies Bergere didn't shock them as they had expected it would. In fact, they found it a place of beautiful and artistic spectacles. But, all in all, they had a wonderful time and met persons they will long remember."

"This is the simple story of their adventures, just such adventures as might happen to any of us ordinary folk. It details their difficulties with passports and visas. It does not introduce any fiction for the sake of drama. But anyone who wishes to gain an idea of what he will encounter when he finally takes that dreamed-of trip, will find it pleasant, informative, and very easy reading."

Coaching From Sidelines

Mrs. Skutt says she wrote the book, which will fill 200 printed pages, with ample desk-side coaching from the superintendent of schools, who, she says, doesn't always agree with her point of view.

Mrs. Skutt has incorporated in her book incidents large and small, serious and amusing, all having been an integral part of the informal journey about which she tells and writes equally informally.

It is hoped that she has included her account of their great disappointment in being put off of the celebrated luxury train, the Orient Express, for lack of a necessary visa.

Mr. Skutt told the story to an audience and even this disappointment, in retrospect, had a glint of humor in the telling:

'Stand Your Ground'

"As I stood in the door of our compartment and protested, unsuccessfully, to the conductor, Mrs. Skutt in witty stage whisper kept advising me, 'Stand ground! And a few compartments down a sympathetic fellow traveler shoulded to me, 'Call your ambassador! Call your ambassador!'

Neither standing my ground nor calling the ambassador, if that had been possible, would have done a bit of good at that point," Mr. Skutt observed. "We didn't have a Yugoslav visa and we were firmly put off the train and our baggage with us."

Mrs. Skutt plans to handle the advance sales of her book herself. Copies (and autographs if requested) also will be available at Perry's Stationery and Gift Shop.

Cost of Swim Pool, Bond Election Mounts

The cost to the City of determining just how voters stood on bond financing for a municipal swimming pool in City park was $65 more than recently reported. The majority vote in the Feb. 16 election was "No."

At the time City Clerk Marie Warfel compiled the special election costs the total was $1169.07, covering election supplies, election officials' pay and polling place rentals, postage for mailing sample ballots and legal fee.

A bill for $65.14 was received since that time from the County Registrar of Voters for typing indexes, making deletions and addressing envelopes, a charge made only for special elections. This brings the total special election cost to date to $1234.21, according to Mrs. Warfel.

Screen star Betta St. John bows at Pasadena Playhouse tonight, April 1, starred as "Gigi" in her first legit appearance (non-musical) on the West coast.

As "Gigi" she plays a young French girl in Paris of the 1900's, surrounded by scheming female relatives who scorn marriage as a middle class institution and plan to set her up as a "grand cocotte."

Adapted by Anita Loos, the "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend" author, from a novel by the famed French writer Colette, "Gigi" offers a slyly pungent humor, funny without being vulgar.

Handsome Britisher Peter Grant is Betta's leading man.

Concert Assn. Roster Open Week of Apr. 5

Sierra Madreans who wish to join the Foothill Community Concert Association will have that opportunity the week of April 5, when the annual membership canvass begins with headquarters at the office of Noren Eaton, attorney, just east of the parking lot by the Safeway.

Mrs. Noren Eaton will head up the solicitation, according to announcement today by Heyward L. Willard of Monrovia, president of the concert group, in the absence of Mrs. Herbert L. Brown from the city. Working on the local campaign committee with Mrs. Eaton are Mrs. Daniel D'Arcy and Mrs. Brown, board members, and Mrs. Hugh Colvin, Mrs. Stanley D. Fish, Mrs. William Mack, Mrs. F. Joseph McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Skutt and Mrs. P. R. Woodworth. The solicitation continues for just one week, when the membership list is closed.

This plan has to be followed under the organized audience plan as no artists are booked until membership dues are counted and the available budget determined. Last year the series reflected the improvement made possible by the increase in membership and concerts included David Pokeri, tenor; the Vienna Academy Chorus of mixed voices; Musical Americana, a dance-music presentation with its roots in the history of our country; and the excellent young Austrian pianist, Paul Badura-Skoda.

Members are looking forward to the coming presentation by Helen Traubel, who will climax the series at Monrovia-Duarte High school on the evening of April 13.

The annual dinner of the association will be held at Pi-erre's, in San Marino, April 5, at 6:30 p.m.

Bethany Choir To Present Sacred Easter

The Bethany church choir will be heard in a special concert on Palm Sunday evening, April 11, at 7:30 o'clock. The choristers will present a sacred cantata, "From Olivet to Calvary," by Maunders. Mrs. Robert Schaper will conduct and the organist will be Mrs. Violet Severy.

The choir was last heard in special recital at Christmas. The church was filled to capacity for two services at that time, but plans are being made to take care of as many as possible for the one service on April 11.

Dr. Robert M. Schaper, pastor, will continue his series of messages on the events in the last week of the life of Christ this coming Sunday. "The subject announced is 'The Upper Room.' The church will meet for its quarterly business session this Friday evening at 6:30. It has been announced that plans for church expansion will be presented at that time.

Concept of God Forms Character, Lesson Says

A child's concept of God will form his character in paths of integrity and uprightness, says the Sunday lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches. The subject is "Unreality."

Selections from the King James version of the Bible include these words of admonition from Proverbs (22:6, 23:12), "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it. . . . Apply thine heart into instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge."

In selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy counsels, "Children should be allowed to remain children in knowledge, and should become men and women only through growth in the understanding of man's higher nature." "Literary commercialism is lowering the intellectual standard to accommodate the demand for amusement instead of for improvement." (pp. 62, 195).

The golden text is from Romans (13:12): "The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light."

"POSITIVE IMAGE BUILDING" DR. BARNHART'S SUBJECT

Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister of the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd., Pasadena, has chosen for the topic of her sermon for Sunday, April 4, "Positive Image Building."

Sermon Topic For Sunday Is Announced

The fifth Sunday in Lent will be observed at Church of Our Redeemer with the pastor preaching on the theme, "What Shall I Do?" The Rev. Raynor Smith will reveal the implication of these words for each individual in contemporary life. The choir, with Miss Florence Evans at the piano, will assist in the ministry of music.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service has three events scheduled for the next few days. Tomorrow, April 2, the executive committee will meet in the church parlor at 10 a.m. On Thursday, April 6, the ladies of the local society plan to attend the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service meeting at First Methodist church, Alhambra. This will be followed on Friday, April 9, with the regular monthly meeting of the Church of Our Redeemer society. The meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will begin at 10 a.m. and will be held in the church parlor.

"Why the Cross, For You?" will be the study theme for the mid-week fellowship hour, April 8. This informal hour of worship and discussion is geared to the spiritual needs of everyday life and a cordial welcome is extended the public to attend.

Plans are being made to hold two services on Easter. Further details will be announced later.

Two Speakers Scheduled for Bethany Missionary Meeting

DR. A. E. ERNY
... Afternoon Speaker

Bethany Missionary society will meet all day Tuesday, April 6, starting at 10:45 a.m. at Bethany church with David Morken the speaker for the morning session. Mr. Morken has returned recently from the Orient and was active in "Youth For Christ" in Korea, Japan, Indonesia, Formosa and India. He is reported to be a forceful and sought-after speaker and the public is invited to hear him. He will be leaving next month for Europe.

The devotional message will be at 1:20 p.m. following the covered-dish luncheon. The afternoon session at 2 o'clock will feature Dr. Eugene A. Erny, chairman of the board of directors of the Oriental Missionary society. Dr. Erny is also editor of Revival magazine and co-editor of the Oriental Missionary society publication, The Missionary Standard. In former years he has served in the mission fields of India and China and his messages present an up-to-the-minute missionary challenge.

There will be a nursery and child care provided for babies and small children.

Churchill's Among New Library Books

By LULU MOORE
Librarian Sierra Madre Library

TRIUMPH AND TRAGEDY brings to a conclusion Winston Churchill's six-volume history of the second World War. It covers D-Day, Yalta Conference, death of Roosevelt, his own defeat at the polls and the opening of the atomic age. MAN WHO NEVER WAS by a British intelligence officer, Ewen Montagu, describes the hoax in which the corpse of an English civilian was used to mislead the Germans in regard to the landing place chosen for the Allied invasion of Italy. The scheme was weird enough but was carried out with such decorum that the account is not unduly sensational. BUT WE WERE BORN FREE by Elmer Davis consists of articles and speeches issued by the radio commentator in defense of free-

Children Enthusiastic Users Of Library; Their Interest Is Fostered by Several Means

By MARTHA C. FRITCHARD
Member, Sierra Madre Library Board

The children's room of the proposed new library building will seat 35 boys and girls, will shelve 3000 volumes around the walls. In 1953 more books were circulated in this department of the present library than ever before—18,955.

How come? First, parents in our city come to the library with their children—fathers as well as mothers; in fact, whole families frequently.

Second, classes from the school make scheduled visits with their teachers annually. They come before the library is open to the public so that the children may receive guidance as to library ways and behavior and in selecting their books. This has been done for many years.

Third, "Reading Clubs" since 1949 have fostered vacation reading with a poster recording progress of those who enter. This past summer "Space Ship" stops at the planets took on those readers who had qualified by reading two books a week and talking them over with Mrs. Marjorie Black. Seven children made the entire 10-week "flight" and many more read many books between interruptions of family vacation trips.

Fourth, we must credit the contagious enthusiasm of the children themselves. The librarians tell us "they quickly discover favorites which they excitedly recommend to each other. They do a lot of re-reading and gravitate to favorite authors. One little girl so enjoyed Ingalls Wilder's pioneer (true) stories that she asked for the author's address and birthdate so she could send her a card."

"Famous Childhoods" Popular The report continues, "Probably the most widely read books in the juvenile section are in the series 'Childhoods of Famous Americans.' These two dozen or more volumes include men and women heroes of our nation in all periods and are written by many authors. Another popular series is 'Landmark Books.' These, also written by many authors, cover stories of historical and technical development of America

Shirlee Peterson Becomes Bride of Robert M. Hubbert in Church Ceremony

Shirlee Selmers Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selmers Edwin Peterson, 50 East Alegria, became the bride of Robert Melvin Hubbert, son of Mrs. William Johnson of Redding, Calif., and Walter Melvin Hubbert of El Monte, Saturday, Mar. 27 at Church of the Good Shepherd, Arcadia.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a floor length full-skirted ivory antique taffeta gown. Her finger-tip French illusion veil was attached to a modified Juliet cap edged with tiny pearls. The bridal bouquet was fashioned of white orchids and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Susan B. Marmion, and the bridesmaid, Miss Beverly J. Stunden, wore ballerina length apple green taffeta dresses and carried Carmen carnations. Their small nose-veils were held in place by matching tulle bands.

Don W. Courtney was best man. The ushers were Warner Escher, Donald Skrab, Ralph Wells, and the bridegroom's cousin, Donald Hubbert.

The bride's mother was gowning in a ballerina length aqua blue lace dress and she wore a corsage of pink cymbidiums.

The groom's mother wore an ankle-length powder blue lace gown. Her corsage was an arrangement of yellow cymbidiums.

A reception for 150 guests was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors.

The bride is an alumna of Sierra Madre City school, Woodrow Wilson Junior High school, John Muir Junior college, and the University of California, at Berkeley, where she pledged Pi Beta Phi sorority.

The groom attended Mark Keppel High school, East Los Angeles Junior college, and Muir college where he was a member of the Varsity Club.

Following a honeymoon trip to Yosemite and San Francisco the newly married couple will make their home in Redding, Calif.

Civic Club Style Event Attended By Approximately 300

High styles and gay hats provided an evening of entertainment for approximately 300 men and women who attended the Sierra Madre Civic club's benefit fashion show Friday night in the Woman's clubhouse. The men who attended, albeit reluctantly, found themselves enjoying the parade of fashions in which four of their cohorts were among the models. The Don Jackson Store for Men was a co-sponsor of the show.

Background music was provided by Don Parker, Dean Stoddard and Louis Sauter.

Climax of the affair was the modeling of "zany" hats designed and fashioned by members of the club. Dead ducks, bird cages, Maypoles and surreys were only a few of the amusing headgear motifs they proved so effective that Gene Burton's Carousel shop in Pasadena has requested the use of them for a window display with donations to go toward the purchase of the Armstrong reading device for polio patients at Rancho Los Amigos.

Although returns are incomplete, Mrs. Lee Jordan, chairman of the fashion show event, estimates that proceeds, less expenses, will be sufficient to purchase one of the readers, an invention of a Sierra Madre man, Edward Cook.

FIRE FLAMES

By JAMES HEASLEY

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. ETHEL HENDERSON

There are a few of us old-timers who remember well the late Ethel Henderson's interest in the local Volunteer Fire department. In the early twenties we were not finding it easy to retain an interested membership and when Tom Henderson took over the reins, Ethel pulled with him.

Attendance had fallen off and interest waned until Ethel figured that much can be done "through a man's stomach." Regular meeting nights had been established and preparations could be made beforehand. Enlisting the aid of her friends and neighbors, Ethel took upon herself the responsibility of providing pies and coffee for each meeting . . . and attendance picked up.

The firemen were her "boys" and for many, many years anything that interested them had her full and devoted attention. Many of her old fire-fighting friends have passed on, but the rest of us realize well all that she did in helping to build the department at a time when it and its physically-fit personnel were badly needed. The town was small but with a great fire hazard.

It was with her warm interest and help, without a doubt, that the department gained the reputation for efficiency and reliability that it now has. Credit goes to both Tom and Ethel Henderson. Her death recently is a loss to all of us. Her smiling face has been missed from the boulevard since her illness.

We knew that her wishes were to keep fire from her city. So when any of us attempt any burning, let's make sure it's safe. Mrs. Henderson would.

Our regular drill last Friday proved that we have some good truck drivers in our midst. This includes Bob Newbery who has always been very quiet about his abilities. Always willing to relinquish his turn at the wheel, he surprised all concerned when the Chief insisted that he "take over."

ALWAYS!

Charity begins at home, men are always giving their wives excuses. (The Gosport, USNAS Pensacola.)

DAVID BASSETT, 4, whose fifth birthday will be celebrated by volunteers in the coming Sister Kenny appeal for funds to aid victims of polio. David now walks because of the care he received at the Sister Kenny Polio hospital, El Monte. It is the only hospital in the entire west which gives the complete Kenny Method to treat the disease and is open to all regardless of race, religion, residence, age, color, or ability to pay. Mrs. Robert Danielson, 53 E. Laurel, is local chairman of the appeal.

Local Officials Urged By OCD to Start Study For Dispersal Plans

Municipal and county officials throughout California have been urged by Maj. Gen. Walter M. Robertson, state Civilian Defense director, to undertake preliminary steps to studies of the problems involved in dispersal of population from the state's target areas under threat of enemy attack. Though a year to 18 months will be required before sufficient warning time to put such plans into effect can be guaranteed by the Air Force, the complexity of the problem is such that intensive surveys should be started as soon as possible in all areas to determine feasibility of the dispersal policy, and extent to which it can be carried out. The director made the suggestion last week in letters to mayors, city managers and county supervisors recommending appointment of committees to implement the studies.

Sister Kenny Hospital Fund Campaign May 7

Plans are underway for the forthcoming fund raising program for the Sister Kenny polio hospital in El Monte.

Mrs. Robert W. Danielson, Sierra Madre city chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Bashford Sewall, assistant chairman, and the section chairmen, Mrs. John L. Golden, Mrs. Al Foxton, Mrs. Robert D. Sweet, Mrs. Howell

White, Mrs. Winfield Cannon and Mrs. Richard Crook. There will be a meeting and luncheon for the chairmen and workers on Tuesday, April 6, at 1 p.m. at the Sister Kenny polio hospital. All workers will be taken on a tour of the hospital. More campaign workers are needed for the drive to be held Friday, May 7. Anyone wishing to donate their time to this worthy project are encouraged to call Mrs. Danielson at CUster 5-6931.

Mrs. Victor F. Plumb, 1230 Tropical, and Mrs. Victor Kluge of Altadena were cohostesses at a surprise bridal party given for Mrs. Plumb's daughter, Elizabeth Jean, who will marry Frank R. Halterman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Halterman, Sr., of Altadena, at a spring wedding.

The highlight of the evening's entertainment was a mock wedding with the guest of honor's sister, Karen, taking the part of the groom, Cathie Conzelmann as the bride, Joanne Haley as the minister, Rosemary McIntyre as maid of honor, Cecelia Kluge as best man and Patricia Halterman as flower girl.

Among those in attendance at the happy affair were Mrs. Gordon S. Templar, Mrs. Raymond Harvey, Mrs. William Shiner, Mrs. William M. Semple, Mrs. Jack Follmer, Mrs. Frank Read, Mrs. Maurice J. Sullivan, Mrs. Frank R. Halterman, Sr., Mrs. Donald McCoy, Mrs. Brooks Thomas, Mrs. Jim Blaine, Mrs. Lee Barron, Mrs. Paul Heinemann, Mrs. Thomas Herborn, Mrs. Iva Belle Hibber, Mrs. Robert McIntyre, Mrs. Leonard Wujek, Mrs. Oscar Klein, Mrs. E. Both Miss Plumb and Mr. Halterman are graduates of John Muir Junior college. Mr. Halterman has recently returned from Germany where he was stationed with the U.S. Army. After arriving home he received his Army discharge following three years of service.

Life will be a lot happier for you if you use the advice you have been giving your friends, years ago.

Dr. Durfee Lectures Are Well Received

Hastings Ranch residents who have been attending a series of lectures at Eugene Field school by Dr. M. B. Durfee have expressed appreciation for his interesting, helpful and often amusing child guidance lectures. The last of the series will be Wednesday, April 7, at 7:45 p.m.

Dr. Durfee, medical director of the Pasadena Child Guidance Clinic, has advised parents to adopt a relaxed attitude toward their children, realizing that traits such as stubbornness in children often are only the beginnings of a strong adult individual. He urged parents to help their youngsters develop a "friendly conscience."

But he told mothers and fathers that there is no "one way" to settle a problem, that the best solution must be sought for each one individually.

Mrs. John McGraw, PTA parent education chairman, is in charge of the series, and has introduced Dr. Durfee to his enthusiastic audiences.

Guild Members Have Meeting April 2nd

Two new members, Mrs. James F. Chinn and Mrs. Peter G. Lubisch, will be welcomed into the group.

Eighteen-month-old Paul Curtis Wilfong was the youngest guest introduced at the Sierra Madre Woman's club tea the other afternoon because he is staying with his grandparents, the Alex Wilfongs, 3660 Greenhill, while his household is adjusted to his new brother, John Martin, who arrived March 19. The boys are children of the Wilfongs' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wilfong, Duarte.

But about being introduced at the tea, Mrs. Wilfong said he deserved it because, after all, there aren't many boys that small who prefer Newsweek to Nursery tales.

A third daughter, Mary Anne, weighing 7 lbs., 10 ozs., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Stube, 1375 Coronet, March 9 at St. Luke hospital. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stube of Detroit, Mich. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Joseph Gould of Pasadena. The other Stube children are Richard, 10, Elaine, 9, and Marlene, 5.

A son, Bruce Wayne, was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Posthumus, 930 Medford, March 11 at St. Luke hospital. He weighed 8 lbs., 12 ozs. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. David Ornee of Eagle Rock. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Little of South Gate, Ky.

A son, Gregory George, weighing 6 lbs., 13 1/2 ozs., was born to Mr. and Mrs. George M. Rehels, 1145 Hastings Ranch Dr., March 11 at St. Luke hospital. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Julius Smith of Placentia, Calif. The paternal grandmother is Mrs. Helen Rehels of Pasadena.

The new I-block Six-Fordomatic Drive combination is available in any of Ford's 14 body styles. Illustrated is the Customline Six Fordor Sedan.

Ford Six and Fordomatic

The new Ford 115-h.p. I-block Six whisks you along silently, smoothly, economically. Its deep-block build provides rigid crankshaft support for smoother, quieter operation. Low-friction design and high-turbulence combustion chambers mean more miles from less gas. And, thanks to the Six's higher compression and increased displacement, you get extra "GO" power at all speeds!

Fordomatic Drive shifts for you more smoothly than you could do it yourself. It's the only "automatic" in Ford's field to combine a fluid torque converter and an automatic intermediate gear. Should you ever need an extra burst of speed for passing or hill-climbing Fordomatic's intermediate gear takes over automatically when you step down on the accelerator.

You get a double-value power package when you buy a '54 Ford with the new I-block Six and versatile Fordomatic Drive.

This brilliant Ford engine-transmission combination brings you all the smoothness and flexibility of the finest no-shift driving combined with the extra economy that's built into the industry's most modern, short-stroke, overhead-valve Six. And, of course, you get the smooth, level riding comfort, the easier handling of Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension, a feature exclusive to Ford in its field.

Remember, too, a Ford Six with Fordomatic Drive is automatically worth more when it comes time for you to sell!

A FORDOMATIC FORD IS AUTOMATICALLY

R. G. BARRETT

R. G. Barrett, above, was the recipient this year of the Silver Beaver award, highest award given to a Scout leader on a council basis. It represents council recognition for outstanding service to boyhood. Born in England, reared in Canada and a United States resident since 1923, Barrett entered Scouting in 1945 serving as committee-man for Sierra Madre Troop 3. He subsequently became Neighborhood Commissioner, District Commissioner, then District Chairman. In 1953 he served on the International Jamboree staff for Section I.

A spokesman for the San Gabriel Valley council pointed out that the individual's activities in and contribution to his community in fields other than Scouting also is taken into consideration. Barrett, a local nurseryman, is active in Civil Defense, the Community Coordinating council, the Masonic lodge and the Episcopal church.

Of 5000 adult leaders registered with the council, Barrett was one of six to receive the Silver Beaver award this year. Sixty-seven Scouters have received the council award in this area since 1945. Barrett is the father of a Scout who has been active in Scouting for the past 11 years.

PTA Swim Pool Money To Go Toward Park Improvements

THE GIFFORD EASTWOODS ELECTED CO-PRESIDENTS FOR COMING YEAR

The Sierra Madre PTA voted recently to donate approximately $1000, previously earmarked for the municipal swimming pool fund, to support the City Recreation Commission's plans for improving recreational facilities in City Park. The sum includes $400 realized from the PTA Carnival more than a year ago and more than $600 from the Country Fair last spring.

At the same meeting new officers were elected. Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Eastwood to be installed in May as co-presidents. Plans also were instigated by the PTA to support a program in June for the anti-rabies inoculation of household pets.

The Eastwoods succeed Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Bohart as co-presidents. They and other officers-elect will take office July 1. The 1954-55 officers also include: Mr. and Mrs. Frazier Dougherty, first vice-presidents and program chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Maloney, second vice-presidents and membership chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rountree, third vice-presidents and ways and means chairmen;

Also, Mrs. Katherine L. Valentine, recording secretary; Mr. and Mrs. James C. Winslow, corresponding secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Garson, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. George Feichtmann, auditors; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clardy, parliamentary and Mrs. Saline Pascoe, historian.

Severin Sorensen headed the nominating committee which also included James R. Bowman, Miss Betty Newton, Mrs. Alyce Herrold and Mrs. William Waite.

Approximately 200 persons attended the meeting which was open to the public. The program was presented by Supt. of Schools and Mrs. Charles A. Skutt who showed 120 color slides depicting the couple's recent trip around the world. Mrs. Skutt provided the commentary and also modeled her Paris "gown" and a Japanese bath kimono. Mrs. Helen Obazawa modeled another kimono which the Skutts brought from Japan.

In introducing Mr. and Mrs. Skutt, Mrs. Norman MacDonald announced the forthcoming publication in book form of Mrs. Skutt's account of their "World Safari."

for kite flying fun—
and safety—follow the rules!

There are very few sports which can be enjoyed with as little equipment as kite flying. That's probably one reason it has been so popular with young and old for thousands of years. Even the rules are simple, but they're very important! You'll have a lot more fun if you remember them:

1. Fly kites in an open field, away from electric power lines and other overhead obstructions.
2. Be sure the string is perfectly dry.
3. Never use wire, tinsel or metallic string.
4. If the kite catches in a power line, let go immediately. Don't pull! Phone the company owning the line and a lineman will get your kite for you.

Deafness Can Be Remedied

ROY O. GILBERT, M.D.
Los Angeles County
Health Officer

Not so many years ago, deafness was considered a major handicap. Very little was known about its many causes so nothing much could be done either to prevent it or arrest its progress. The victim of deafness and the people around him had to suffer it through as best they might. Today, much of that has been changed. Deafness can now be remedied or arrested in the majority of cases.

The numerous forms of hearing impairment can, for the sake of simplicity, be grouped into two main types, namely, conductive or middle ear loss and perceptive or nerve loss. The conductive form is the one most frequently encountered and is also the one that can, in most instances, be successfully treated.

Trouble Sources
Conductive deafness is a condition, resulting from changes in the outer or middle ear, that interferes with the passage of sound to the inner ear. Any part of the ear canal, the eardrum, or the three small bones of the middle ear may be the source of the trouble. Occasionally, the blocking of the Eustachian tube, the small passage leading from the middle ear to the throat, also results in loss of hearing.

Some of the causes for conduction loss include the accumulation of wax or the presence of a foreign body in the ear canal; the destruction of part or all of the eardrum or one of the bones of the middle ear; complications of the common contagious diseases of childhood, chronic ear throats or sinusitis, meningitis or any of the other illnesses that may involve the ear. Or it may be due to otosclerosis which is the cause of a large percentage of all cases of adult deafness.

Bony Growth
Otosclerosis is a condition wherein a bony growth occurs around the end of the third bone of the middle ear (stirrup) that fits into the small opening (oval window) leading into the inner ear. This growth prevents the three little bones from moving freely and so interferes with the transmission of sound vibrations to the nerve fibers of the ear.

In nearly all cases of hearing impairment due to these causes, the nerve of hearing is generally undamaged so this condition, due to medical, surgical, or mechanical aid, can be "cured" or arrested in most cases. The wax and foreign bodies can be removed, the eardrum can be patched up—artificial ones are constructed in some instances, and the fenestration operation has been dramatically successful in many advanced cases of otosclerosis. Antibiotic and sulfa drugs often clear up or prevent the development of infections that might injure the hearing.

Hearing Aids Improved
If other measures fail, the use of a hearing aid is necessary. During the last 10 years, these aids have shrunk in size and weight one-third, and, according to the American Hearing Society, have increased in efficiency 300 per cent. Certainly no more hesitation should be felt in using them than in the wearing of glasses.

There are many hearing aids on the market but not all of them are acceptable. The Metropolitan Hearing Center, 215 West 5th street, Los Angeles (Madison 6-1307), will be glad to give information on those that are, or are not, approved by the American Medical Association and the American Hearing Society.

The Answers to Everyday Insurance Problems*
By HARRY A. LANGE

QUESTION: If we lease an old building and spend quite a lot of money on alterations to make it into a super-market, can we get insurance to cover our alterations?
ANSWER: Yes, probably. Improvements and betterments insurance would fit the case you describe but you'd better consult a first class insurance agent.

New Arrivals at C. H. Gerke Home

The Carl K. Gerke home, 602 Mariposa, has been the scene of considerable excitement recently.

A new grand baby, Nancy Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Gerke of South Pasadena, was born March 21 at Huntington Memorial hospital, weighing 6 pounds, 15 ounces. The new arrival's sister, Martha, 4½, has been staying with her grandparents during the "big occasion." A two-year-old brother, Charles, has been staying with the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindendoll in their Pasadena home.

Another Gerke daughter, Mrs. William R. Westerlund, arrived home last week from Camp Eustus, in Virginia, where she has been living since her marriage last December. Her husband is in the Army and has been transferred to Stuttgart, Germany, where he will be attached to the 7th Army Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Westerlund will make her home with her family until she is able to join her husband in Germany.

Turnquist Announces New Children's Classes In "Pooch" Training

Bert Turnquist director of obedience dog training classes of Arcadia County Park, operates unique training for "Man's Best Pal," but, according to Bert, 85 per cent of the training is teaching the masters.

Any smart pup can start going to school at the age of five months. Dogs up to six years may take a course.

Children come to dog school on Saturday with their pooches to learn for their own benefit the wisdom of intelligent discipline. This Saturday new classes for children at 11 a.m., and new adult class at 1 p.m. will get started. The course runs for five Saturdays. For equipment one must have a leash and chain collar. COOKIE SALE
The Girl Scout cookie sale which annually helps the girls with the needed funds for camping will begin on April 3. Advanced orders will be taken until April 9, and the cookies will be delivered after April 10.

This year two varieties will be sold. The plain shortbread cookie packed in an attractively decorated blue box that has been a mainstay of past years will again be available. Also we are offering a new sandwich-type cookie which the guests at the Girl Scout birthday party enjoyed so much. Because camping is such a definite part of Girl Scouting and because it takes equipment and funds to camp properly, we hope for a successful "Project-Cookies."

WOOD PARAGRAPHS

THE ARE between 25,000 and 50,000 small sawmills in the U. S., not to mention the big ones.

The wood products industries employ about 2,000,000 people. As lumber dries out, it gets stronger.

Timber connectors—devices used with bolts to increase the strength of timber joints—have greatly extended the range of engineered wood construction.

Wood trusses which have given service for more than 1,000 years are still in existence.

The Chicago Natural History Museum has a 32-foot wooden boat which is 3,800 years old.
